Headline:
Bright start, then clouding over with some rain.

Today:
A dry and bright start with sunny spells in the east. Cloud will soon thicken with patchy rain reaching Fermanagh and the west around lunchtime, then spreading east during the afternoon. The southerly winds freshening, becoming strong around the coast. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain and drizzle, much of this light and patchy. Misty at times with extensive hill fog. Very mild and breezy. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Thursday:
Cloudy and dull with outbreaks of rain and drizzle, the best of any drier spells through Counties Antrim and Down. Breezy with strong winds around the coast. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Early rain and drizzle on Friday, but it should become drier in the east. Further rain at times on Saturday, then bright and breezy with a few showers on Sunday.
